

DOES YOUR FAMILY NEED AFFORDABLE CHILD CARE?

Co-payment structure makes child care more affordable for working families.

Working families (and those attending school) may qualify for North Dakota’s Child Care Assistance Program. This program makes it affordable for parents to enroll their children in child care programs that have trained caregivers who can strengthen children’s development and learning. Give your child the best possible care. Apply today.

Join the families who have already applied.

You will need these documents to complete your application:

- Identification (driver’s license, passport, etc.)
- Children’s birth certificates
- Pay stubs for all income in previous and current month
- Parent work or education schedule
